About Jim...

Jim Pilon has been practicing law in Southwest Florida for over 35 years. In 1994 he achieved his Board Certification in Real Estate from The Florida Bar and by 2001, he had attained an AV attorney rating (the highest rating possible) from Martindale Hubble, a firm that identify lawyers with the highest ethical standards and professional ability.

Jim has handled all aspects of residential and commercial real estate transactions. He is a past president of the Collier County Bar Association (1991) and of the Naples Area Board of Realtors (2003) and is a long-standing member of the Mortgage Bankers Association of Southwest Florida. He has also played an integral part in creating the NABOR Real Estate contract, which has become the standard contract for Collier County.

Originally from western New York with bachelor's and master's degrees from the State University of New York at Oswego, Jim obtained his law degree (Juris Doctor) from Stetson University in 1976. He and his wife Geri have 3 children (all graduates of Barron Collier High School) and live in North Naples.
