About Kathleen...

Senator Kathleen Passidomo was elected to the Florida Senate in November 2016 after having served in the Florida House of Representatives since 2010.

She graduated cum laude from Trinity University (Washington, D.C.) in May of 1975 and received her law degree from Stetson University College of Law in December of 1978. She is a partner in the firm Kelly, Passidomo & Alba LLP and has been a member of the Florida Bar since 1979. She is a Florida Bar Board Certified Real Estate Lawyer. She received the 1990 Attorney of the Year Award from the Florida Law Related Education Association of the Florida Bar and was named as the "Attorney of the Year" by the Collier County Women's Bar Association for 2005. She also received the 2010 Florida Bar President's Pro Bono Service Award.

Senator Passidomo is a graduate of Leadership Florida Class XII, Leadership Collier Class of 1991 and Leadership Marco Island Class of 2014 and served on the Leadership Collier Foundation Board from 2004 to 2010. Amongst her many achievements, most recently, she was a founding member and served as Vice-Chairman of the Collier County Foreclosure Task Force, a partnership of community, civic and governmental organizations formed to provide pro bono advice and assistance to people living in Collier County facing foreclosure during the past economic downturn. She currently serves on the Collier County Identity Theft Task Force and on the Board of Directors of the Marco Island Historical Society.

Senator Passidomo and her husband John have lived in Naples for 37 years and have three children, Catarina, Francesca and Gabriella and two grandsons, William and Emilio.
